Forging ahead and striving for excellence

2011 ANNUAL REPORT

Presidents Message

The New Chesapeake Men for Progress Education Foundation, Inc. experienced a successful year in 2011. The Foundation's Scholarship Committee awarded $10,000 in scholarships and textbook stipends, $3,000 more than in 2010 which represented a 30% increase in assistance to youth in Chesapeake. The 2011 Achievement and Scholarship Award Breakfast Program was attended by more than 400 youth, adults, sponsors, governmental and school officials, legislators, corporate leaders, and Foundation members.

It is important that I acknowledge that we attracted State Farm Insurance as a new sponsor and long term partner. Also, we are grateful and appreciative of 2011 first time table sponsorships provided by Ballard Construction Company, Regent University, Virginia Port Authority, Freedom Automotives, and the Hampton roads Messenger. Your financial support contributed to the overwhelming success of the program and our youth were the beneficiaries.

It is important to note that seven $1,000 Scholarship awardees and fourteen book stipend recipients are attending colleges and universities throughout the United States. As stated in our motto "forging ahead and striving for excellence," we must build on this momentum in 2012. We are striving to award at least $20,000 in scholarships and increase the Foundation's support of mentoring initiatives conducted by The New Chesapeake Men for Progress. Additionally, we plan to partner with local organizations, Greek letter sororities and fraternities, civic and community organizations to provide cultural enrichment programs and field trips for middle school youth in Chesapeake.

As we move forward into 2012, the Foundation Board of Directors and Scholarship Committee members will be expanding the scope of the scholarship program to include students with a 2.5 – 3.0 Grade Point Average along with students with a 3.0 grade point average and above. We recognize that many of these students have a greater need for financial assistance, and are deserving of being consider for scholarship awards.

Awarding of more scholarships is contingent on your support, that is, corporate donations , foundation donations and grants, individual contributions and the Foundation member's contributions. I am confident that you will work with us to achieve the level of funding to support the goals listed below for 2012:

- Increase the Foundation's financial assets
- Award $20,000 in scholarships
- Increase the Foundation's membership by 50%.
- Expand the Foundation's support of mentoring initiatives, school supplies for needy students, and provide educational and cultural experiences for youth in Chesapeake.

The Foundation's success during the past year would, of course, be impossible without the loyal support of the Board of Directors and members. Special "thank you" is extended to the officers, committee chairmen for their work and commitment to achieving the mission and goals of the Foundation. It is important that we continue to commit ourselves to the mission, goals, and values of the Foundation, and work diligently to improve the life chances of Chesapeake youth.

Martin Luther King, Jr., declared that "Everybody can be great...because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verbs agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love."

Again, I want to express my sincere gratitude to individual ticket buyers, corporate sponsors, donors, community organization leaders, ad purchasers, and members for their financial support, assistance, and steadfastness in believing in the work of this Foundation. Together, we can continue to make a difference in the quality of life for the youth and adults in the City of Chesapeake.

William E. "Bill" Ward, Ph.D.
President
